OPPORTUNITIES

Santa isn't offering any apprenticeships to support his logistics operations this year, but did you know that there are hundreds of positions in logistics and supply chain available every year?

If you want to learn more about this, you can take part in this Business and Management Studies Subject Spotlight with Mark Bentley from Anglia Ruskin University. The session is called "Managing Supply Chains: an imperative for business success".

Although England and Scotland are both part of the UK, their Higher Education offers are very different. You can read more about this in the Better Uni Choices super quick guide to Scottish universities.

Inspired by the spellbinding Wicked, only in cinemas from November 22, Into Film have created a new careers resource to help students aged 12-18 unleash their magic upon the world.

Whether you're just starting out or taking your learning further, Swift Coding Clubs are a great way to expand your app development skills. There's so much you can do together. Explore new technologies, build your own apps, network for career opportunities, and more. Assemble your team and you can enter Apple's Swift Student Challenge!

Unloc and Verizon Business have launched the annual Young Entrepreneurs Challenge for 2024. Now in its sixth year, the challenge is open to European entrepreneurs aged between 16-25 years old, who can submit their technology-led start-up business concept online. The winner will receive £10,000, mentorship and a technology package to launch their business.

JOB OF THE WEEK

Transport Planner

Transport Planners develop strategies to improve travel for people and goods, while considering a wide range of issues such as safety, climate change, the economy, and the environment. They improve and manage transportation systems at local, regional, national, and international levels. Watch the video to learn more.

LABOUR MARKET INFORMATION FACT

0.6% of boys in England who want to become football players make it.

91% of academy footballers end up never playing a single game as a professional.
